

WEST VANCOUVER MEMORIAL LIBRARY FOUNDATION WELCOMES APPLICATIONS

The West Vancouver Memorial Library Foundation is accepting applications for positions on its Board of Directors.

The Foundation is particularly interested to receive applications from applicants with a finance &/or accounting background.

Established in 1986, the Foundation is an incorporated, not-for-profit society, which raises funds and administers endowments, donations and bequests for the West Vancouver Memorial Library. The Foundation annually grants funds to the Library, which help provide enhancements that make the Library a very special place for local citizens and visitors.

If you are passionate about your Library, we want to hear from you.

Application forms, available at the library and on-line, must be received via post, email, or at the WVML Foundation Office by:
