

DEED OF GIFT / GRANT OF PERMISSION

We are committed to making our holdings as widely available as possible, without any unnecessary restrictions on their use. With this agreement, the donor donates the digital copy(s) attached to the submission to the West Vancouver Memorial Library. In return, the WVML will preserve and provide access to the material to the public under agreed terms and conditions.

Terms and Conditions of Donated Digital Image:

- The donor transfers copyright to the West Vancouver Memorial Library.
- With this agreement the donor grants unlimited permission to the West Vancouver Memorial Library in perpetuity, including the ability to grant use to third parties.
- The donor grants WVML permission to create prints and/or digital copies of the images for third-party use including personal, business, exhibition, education, research, and publication in books, magazines, newspapers, brochures, websites, and other media.
- No royalties will be collected. Any fees charged for reproduction of prints will be used to cover expenses for maintaining the collection.
- All acknowledgments in publications or other media will be to the West Vancouver Memorial Library.
- The WVML reserves the right to accept or reject any submission to this Community Call Out Project.

Declaration of Permission:

By submitting/uploading an image and/or digital file to the West Vancouver Memorial Library's 75th Community Call Out Digitization Project you are agreeing and granting the West Vancouver Memorial Library full permission under the above terms and conditions of use.
